

I am opposed to any changes to Indiana's "no call list" law. If I have a previously established relationship with a company or business that means I know how to contact them and I don't need them contacting me. If any changes are to be made I wish it would be to prohibit charitable and political telephone solicitations.